Hello fellow quilters,

It was great getting back to the Senior Center on a regular basis again. Cath Evans gave a very informative presentation on the elements that she looks at when judging a quilt.

Welcome to the four new members: Carolyn Hall, Connie Carroll, Gayle Ritchie and Laura Satterwhite, who joined our Guild this past Monday.

The work day for July will be Wednesday, July 7, at 10AM instead of Monday since the Senior Center will be closed on Monday, July 5. We will be working on items that can be sold at the Morganton Fall Festival on Sept 4. Each member agreed at the meeting to contribute in making at least one item to be sold at the festival. Remember that the items we sell are to be a good representative of the quality of work that we do as quilters.

We will also be participating in the Blue Ridge Fun Day to be held at Catawba Meadows on Oct 8 from 5-9PM (rain date Oct 15). The children will be instructed in sewing a small pouch that they can take home with them. If you have a sewing machine that you can supervise for that event, please let Cindy Konarski know.

Congratulations to Carp, Judy Cobb, Glenda Huffman and Karel Johnson for being recipients of gifts after the last shop hop. There will be another shop hop in October and November. Included in this newsletter is a list of the participating shops.

Donation quilt tickets

Thank you to those members that turned in their tickets unstapled. In the future, I will not accept stapled ticket books. Please remove the staples before turning them in.

Also, if anyone has not picked up their tickets yet, I'll be e-mailing you to make arrangements. And if you want more tickets, please see me at any meeting. I have plenty to give out.

Thank you.

Burke Quilters' Guild July 2021

The Burke Quilters' Guild had their regular meeting on Monday, June 28. There were 31 members present. Our program featured Cath Evans from High Country Quilts. She gave an explanation of ways that she judged a quilt, using three basic elements – Presentation, Design and Creativity, and Workmanship. This was very interesting and informative.

We had four visitors that joined our guild. They were Laura Satterwhite, Connie Carroll, Gayle Ritchie, and Carolyn Hall. We welcomed and recognized them. The May minutes were approved. Dawn proposed a change to the quilt categories for our quilt show for 2022, to add a category for panels. We also discussed the need to have members present for the three weekends in Sept that CoMMA will be open to the public to view our quilts. A sign-up sheet will be available soon.

We discussed ways to publicize our quilt show, including flyers at the information booth during the festival. Nancy passed around samples of these flyers. Also, members on Facebook were asked to post info about the show. Dawn showed one ribbon that will be ready for our quilt show. These were very nice ribbons.

Linda H. asked that members bring completed entry forms for our quilt show to our next meeting or mail them to her.

Linda M. went over the schedule for the quilt show week. Aug. 23 is our luncheon. The cost for the luncheon is $10. The 24th will be judging of the quilts. The 25th will be hanging of the quilts. Thursday night, the 26th will be our awards night.

Susan B. reported that she has given 12 Wee Care quilts to the hospital. Terry M. reported that one quilt of Valor had been presented to the Elks Club. She also said that if anyone needed fabric to make a Quilt of Valor to let her know.

Linda M passed out a sheet of possible fund-raising items. She also had a sheet for people to sign telling how many items people were bringing to sell. We want to make sure that we have plenty of items to sell. Joanne reminded members that we can donate a small percentage of sales from Amazon to SmileAmazon.com.

After our Show and Tell, we were dismissed. It was a very productive meeting. Hope to see you all at our next meeting. Respectfully, Glenda Huffman
